

AMERICAN CORMO SHEEP ASSOCIATION (ACSA)
A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

Application for Membership and Agreement

ACSA assists members in the development, improvement, and promotion of their Cormo flocks. Upon receiving approval from the association, members may sell their Cormo wool products in ACSA booths at fiber events and be listed on the ACSA web site and breeders list among other benefits. Ask to join the American Cormo Sheep Association Facebook group to share your ideas and experiences. An ACSA Facebook page is also available as a member benefit.

I understand that the ACSA may deny my membership application for any reason that it deems appropriate, including but not limited to, unethical behavior or unfit character. Further, I understand that my membership may be terminated at any time in the future, without notice, for any reason that the ACSA deems appropriate, including unethical behavior or unfit character. I acknowledge and agree that by signing this application, I shall waive, release and forego any and all right, claim or action that I may have in the event of the denial of my application or the termination of my membership, and that I shall not bring any legal action against the ACSA, its officers, directors, members and agents related thereto.

I understand that the ACSA is a non-profit corporation with its main office located in Montana. I acknowledge and agree that any dispute involving the corporation shall be governed by the laws of the state of Montana, and that the sole venue for any such litigated dispute involving the corporation shall be the District Court of Powder River County, Montana. Further, in the event of such a litigated dispute involving the corporation as a party, the prevailing party shall be awarded its reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred.

I understand and agree that this agreement and the provisions contained herein shall be binding upon my immediate family members, heirs, successors, and assigns.
